Cotswold Edge Ministry Team Letter

Welcome to a season of change and opportunity

It's been a couple of months since Sally's retirement and we are now engaging in the process of managing a vacancy. How do you feel it is going? At one level it's business as usual as we continue to prepare rotas and make sure our services continue in our four churches but at another, we have begun the process of preparing the ground to find a new vicar.

We have been blessed with help from the diocese with ministerial support particularly for communion services. We are also being guided in the task of finding a future vicar. The process is different from the previous two vacancies I have experienced in that this time I feel we are being encouraged to spend time in prayerful preparation to discern what God has in mind for our future as a church. What, in other words, is Christ's call upon us as individuals and collectively as a church?

As I write we have just received a short guide book from the diocese which we can email to you if you would like to see it. I find it very encouraging that the front page reads "Welcome to a season of change and opportunity – Flourishing in a time of vacancy". Welcome, change, opportunity and flourishing. Do these words or some of them resonate with you? I hope so. I am being encouraged to realise that this is a time in which we can indeed flourish. Some of us find change a challenge but when it comes in an answer to Christ's call you can be sure it will be full of goodness. In last month's letter Aurea quoted "I have plans for you declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future" (Jeremiah 29 v 11).

The reality is that God is ALWAYS calling us into a future BUT a future with Him. The words that follow in Jeremiah from the earlier quote read 'Then you will call upon Me and go and pray to Me and I will listen to you. And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart' (Jeremiah 29 v12-13).

As we press forward with plans for our future churches it is tempting to rely on our own plans and ideas and 'just get on with it'. But we have a God who wants to share everything with us. One of my guiding scriptures has been Proverbs 3 v 5 – 6: 'Trust in the Lord with all your heart, lean not on your own understanding, acknowledge Him in all your ways and He will make your paths straight'.

I hope you and I can take these words and the guidance we are offered to heart and take time to discern Christ's call on our lives and thence, collectively, our churches. We can do this with personal and collective prayer and by spending time in God's word again on our own but also in a bible group and in church together. I finish with another quote from a prayer in the Diocesan guidance which I hope you find helpful:

'Enable us to be brave, open, creative and generous, as together we discern who you are calling to join us to follow Jesus, serve others and transform our communities.'

If you would like to share time in prayer or just to chat about Christ's call on our lives for the future, we would be very happy to spend time with you. Just contact one of the ministry team whose details are in the front cover of this Cotswold Edge.

Thinking about doing something different for Lent?

The Diocese have created a whole series of resources to help people explore their RHYTHM OF LIFE. There are videos to watch, detailed instructions to explore Christian practices, ideas for retreats and pilgrimages, monthly online Zoom events, and signposts to other resources and communities who are living out their faith through established rhythms and patterns. All the resources can be used on your own or with others. Go <https://www.bristol.anglican.org/churchlife/resourcesforparishes/rhythm-of-life/> to find out more. We hope to be advertising some Lent groups too – but are still trying to finalise these.

Good Friday: The choir, with soloists, accompanied by the organ, will be performing Stainer's Crucifixion (with congregational hymns included) on Good Friday at 7.30- 8.30 pm. This beautiful oratorio narrates the final days of Jesus' life. If you would like to join the choir to sing, you are most welcome. Speak to Frances Gammie for more details. Otherwise, please do come and listen to this stunning work

Further details about Holy Week and Easter will be available in our March Edition.

A prayer for parishes in times of change

As we navigate this period of vacancy in our parish, here is a prayer that comes from a short guidebook provided by the Diocese. It encourages us to spend time and take comfort from prayer in our path to determining what God has in mind for future.

Dear Lord, our God and Father, in this time of change give us eyes to see your presence in our lives, ears to listen to your will, lips to speak your words, and hands to do your work.

Grant us grace and go before us as we seek your Holy Spirit's counsel, as we encourage each other in our fellowship, and as we reflect on your call on our community.

Enable us to be brave, open, creative and generous, as together we discern who you are calling to join us to follow Jesus, serve others and transform our communities.

We pray this through Jesus Christ, and for the sake of his kingdom, in sure and certain hope of your promises to us. Amen
